New Jersey Agricultural Leadership Development Program

Description

The New Jersey Agricultural Leadership Development Program is a program of the New Jersey Agricultural Society in cooperation with Rutgers Cooperative Extension, NJ Department of Agriculture and New Jersey Farm Bureau. Through a series of seminars and interactive workshops, NJALDP participants explore various agricultural topics; debate key issues; sharpen communications skills; and establish and cultivate an extensive agricultural network throughout the State.

Mission

NJALDP provides leadership development opportunities designed specifically for farmers and others in ag-related businesses. As a result of participating in NJALDP, participants will:

- Sharpen business management skills
- Establish an extensive agricultural network
- Enhance interpersonal skills
- Develop effective marketing skills
- Develop written and verbal communication skills

Vision

To develop a cadre of articulate, knowledgeable and skilled leaders who encourage positive action on key issues, policy and economics to advance NJ's agricultural industry.

Objectives

As a result of participating in NJALDP, Graduates will:

- Be recognized as skilled leaders
- Be more effective managers of their business
- Understand key emerging issues and their impact on their business and the industry
- Be actively and positively engaged in the agricultural community

NJALDP is a two (2) year program.
